

Cliffs of Moher & Galway

Saturday/Sunday Tour

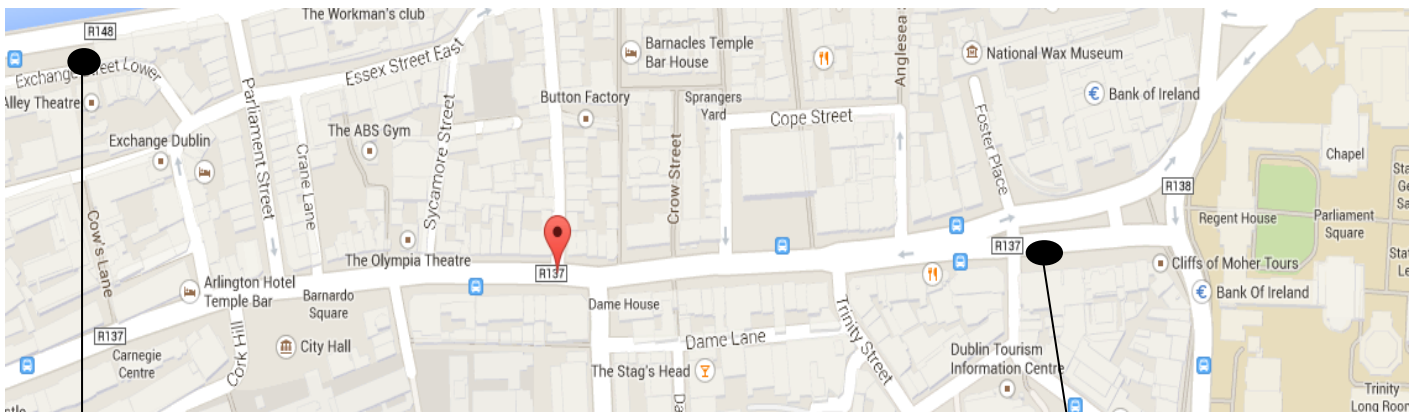

Tour Operator: Wild Rover Tours

Meeting Point

Arrive 10 minutes early

7:00am at Ulster Bank Bus Stop, 33 College Green / Dame Street, Dublin 2.

(Next to Abercrombie & Fitch clothing store - 1 minute from Trinity College)

Kaplan International Languages

Ulster Bank

Please note that the departure time is very early in the morning. Please research how to arrive to the location in time.

On Sunday, Dublin Bus starts much later, and if you live in a host family you may have to take a taxi to the departure location.

There are no refunds for missed tours.

THE CLIFFS OF MOHER & GALWAY

Visit the Cliffs of Moher - voted seventh most wonderful heritage site in the world by UNESCO. Entry is included.

Witness spectacular views over the Atlantic Ocean and the stunning Burren National Park home of 75% of Ireland's national flora.

Travel along the Wild Atlantic Way, with imposing cliffs and golden beaches.

Take in stunning views of the Aran Islands and Galway Bay.

Visit Galway, Ireland's 'most Irish' city take in the street performers and dance along to traditional Irish folk music with a guided walking tour.

Take the opportunity to stop off at a traditional pub and listen to live Irish music.

INCLUDED IN THE TRIP

Transport, guides and all admissions, including Cliffs of Moher Visitor Centre.

THE BUS

Luxury air-conditioned coaches with 4G WiFi (there are no charging ports for devices)

ITINERARY

Departing 7.00am (arrive 10 minutes before)

Your day tour to the Cliffs of Moher from Dublin will travel through Kildare and Limerick before arriving in County Clare. We will pass by Bunratty Castle, a 15th-century medieval Norman fortress, and on through Lahinch, a world famous surfing and golfing destination.

Arriving at the Cliffs of Moher at approximately 11:00am you will be struck by their enormity. The cliffs are 214m high at the highest point and run for 8 kilometres along the western seaboard of County Clare. The sheer height of the cliffs and the spectacular views are sure to leave a lasting impression. During your 2 hours stop at the cliffs, you can choose to Visit O'Brien's Tower, which stands proudly on a headland off these wonderful cliffs, and enjoy views of the Aran Islands and Galway Bay.

Your tour includes a premium admittance ticket to The Atlantic Edge interpretive centre. Here you can see photographs, exhibits, displays and experiences that will add extra insight to the Cliffs of Moher. Continue the tour to The Ledge virtual reality cliff face adventure shown in the audiovisual theatre allowing you to experience life at the cliff face both above and below sea level.

Departing from the Cliffs of Moher at 1:00pm, we continue our scenic journey along the Wild Atlantic Way to the Burren National Park. Here you can see 75% of Ireland's native flora as well as ancient monuments, including megalithic tombs (which are older than the pyramids!), fairy forts and famous Celtic crosses.

Travelling around the scenic Galway Bay, you will be treated to stunning ocean views and points of interest such as Blackhead Lighthouse, Dunguaire Castle and Kinvara fishing village. Storytellers at heart, our tour guides will unlock centuries worth of stories to keep you entertained.

We arrive in Galway City at 3:20pm. The city of the tribes, Galway is Ireland's cultural capital. Stretch your legs during our 30 minute guided walking tour of this medieval city. After the walking tour, you are free to explore the cobblestoned pedestrian streets that are alive with music and street entertainers. Discover the hidden gems of Galway's speciality shops, boutiques and cafes. Departing Galway at 5:20pm, you can now sit back and relax as we begin our journey back to Dublin with wonderful memories to share.

ARRIVE BACK IN DUBLIN 8:00PM: at The Arlington Hotel, Bachelor's Walk, Dublin 1
(opposite Temple Bar on the quay)

Times are approximate and subject to change based on traffic conditions

THINGS TO BRING

- Camera
- Sunglasses
- Raincoat – just in case it rains!
- Comfortable shoes
- Packed lunch or money for lunch & snacks
- Charging cable and power bank to keep your devices charged (buses do not have charging ports)
- Spending money/credit card to shop and pick up souvenirs. It is also customary to tip your driver/guide 😊